Welcome from Vice Chancellor

Dear Faculty,

It's a pleasure to welcome each of you for joining the Guangdong Technion-Israel Institute of Technology (GTIIT).

GTIIT Vision is to become “Leading Technological Institute in China” with a mission “to create knowledge and endorse innovation and entrepreneurship in China and particularly in Guangdong Province”.

The Research, Informatics & Graduate Studies Office (RIGS) is committed to advance the research at GTIIT by providing administrative support to our faculty and students in all aspects of their research activities. We identify and disseminate funding opportunities, manage internal research funding programs, support researchers on proposal preparation, submission and comply with regulations. We facilitate to establish strategic partnerships with industry and promote innovation, entrepreneurship and knowledge transfer.

I look forward to seeing you on campus. Again, I am delighted that you have decided to join GTIIT and participate in moving the institute's mission and goals forward.

Best,

Professor David Gershoni

Vice Chancellor

Welcome from Pro-Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs

Dear Faculty,

Welcome to the Guangdong Technion-Israel Institute of Technology (GTIIT)!

GTIIT is an exciting combination of Israeli and Chinese approaches to research, teaching, and entrepreneurship, with a goal of becoming a leading technological institute in China, and to contribute to society as a whole.

We realize you have a busy time ahead of you on campus, with the coordination of research and teaching being your highest priority. Rest assured that the staff at the Research, Informatics & Graduate Studies Office (RIGS) is here to assist you with the challenges that funded research entail, and with the goal of reaching maximum impact from your findings. At the same time the Academic Administration Office (AAO) and HR office can answer questions regarding status, employment, and general solutions to becoming acclimated to GTIIT and Shantou. We have a great team working to assist you, and our goal is to see you succeed at GTIIT!

My door (both virtual and electronic) is always open.

I hope to see you on campus,

Professor Moris S.Eisen

Pro-Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs

HOW TO APPLY FOR RESEARCH FUNDING

GENERAL FUNDING SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

The RIGS Office helps researchers at GTIIT with their funding application. Before applying for external funding, GTIIT researchers should be aware of the submission process and the internal procedures of the whole submission to ensure a smooth start to a successfully funded research.

Submitting a Research Fund Application

Step 1. Plan and prepare for funding application Source of Funding

RIGS Office would renew and add new research funding opportunities on our intranet. Researchers will be notified by email once funding opportunity posted/updated. When searching for available funding sources, you can refer to the Funding Opportunities section on the Research Intranet.

If you are interested in a specific funding, please contact us:
RIGS (rigs@gtiit.edu.cn) for non-industrial funding.
GTEC (gtec@gtiit.edu.cn) for industrial funding.

We would help you with determining eligibility, interpreting the funding rules, preparing the required materials and etc.

Step 2. Writing the Proposal Application guidelines

Translated Agency's general guidelines could be downloaded on page: General Guidelines from Agency. Researchers would also be notified for the updates by email.

If specific guidelines applicable, it will be found on the page for the individual funding program specifications.

Work within the submission guidelines and internal and external timeframes.

Step 3. Submitting the Application

When we receive your draft, RIGS office would:

- Review the application
- Translate the proposal (when necessary)
- Provide final feedbacks
- Process the internal administrative procedures
- Submit the application to the funding body on your behalf

For the detailed workflow and required application documents, please check our intranet-Funding Platform, Click here.

HOW TO SEARCH FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

Search funding opportunities via our intranet:

<https://sites.gtiit.edu.cn/ResearchIntranet/funding-opportunities/>

RIGS Office has an intranet which is designed to share a series of resources and information for our faculty, ranging from funding search and application submission guidelines, to information for new faculty related to RIGS' services and data management. Now, one section on Funding Opportunities has been developed. We will update funding opportunities on this site.

You may search funding program via this intranet.
